Dear Sir

My brother Percy Bardy who has been out in France with the Royal Field Artillery since the 6th of November last writes me after been through Neuve Chapelle which he describes as "Hell in a mist" saying that he has received your gift and wishes to thank you I thought I could not do better than send you an extract from his letter He writes:—

I would like to send him a letter thanking him but I did not know how to put one together so will you It was a very nice gift

I remain

Yours obediently

Beatrice Pew
