

COUNTY HALL,

NORTHALLERTON.

Dear Sir,

12th September, 1916.

Military Service Act.

I submitted your letters of the 2nd and 5th instant to the Appeal Tribunal at their meeting on the 9th, when they directed me to inform you that they were not prepared to give you permission to appeal to the Central Tribunal.

Yours faithfully,

A. J. Thornley

Clerk of the Appeal Tribunal.

Mr. Wm. Varley,
24, Chestnut Grove,
New Earswick,
York

Dear

Wife

I am now in this Prison, and am in _____ health.

If I behave well, I shall be allowed to write another letter about _____ and to receive a reply, but no reply is allowed to this.

I have accepted work
of National Importance.

Signature—

William Varley

