DESCRIPTION OF THE COAT OF ARMS

Devices which were not forgotten by the Brit-huns in 1914 - 1917.

The armorial bearings of the fighters for freedom

ARMS.

FIELD : Holy Bible and Cross Swords.
Lock and Keys. Prison Bars.

CHEVRON : Three Arrows. The special distinguishing marks worn by those courageous enough to fight the Huns

CHAPEAU : Convicts cap. A cap of dignity or subjection. Upon the chapeau is set the Crown, the bulwark of capitalism, and thereupon the Crest (representing the monster capitalism) in the form of a Wyvern—being part Dragon, Scorpion and Bird with Devils horns, holding a Policeman's Truncheon.

ESCROL : Diligence and Fidelity, the capitalist slogan for the wage slaves.

BADGE : Disc denoting the fighters prison name and residence.
