

Main bodies with oversight of public health and sanitation in York 1825-1974

National oversight:

Medical Officer of Health and Chief Sanitary Inspector* (1873-1974), were the chief officers first of the Urban Sanitary Authority and later the Health Committee

*The Chief Sanitary Inspector was later known as the Chief Public Health Inspector